MY ELDERS TELL ME

Come and journey with My Elders Tell Me! Through the eyes of three 9 year old children, the reader will explore and examine the rich traditional culture of the Kwakwaka speaking peoples. Powerful stories and mythical legends are interwoven throughout the fictitious lives of three children: Cookie, John and Robert. Based upon the values identified by the Elders and resource persons, My Elders Tell Me takes the reader on the empowering discovery of a vision quest, explores seasonal cycles on northern Vancouver Island, describes traditional foods and medicines, food fishing, and recounts the planning of a potlatch. We invite you to participate in our grade four curriculum novel, My Elders Tell Me.
