

PARENT ADVISORY COMMITTEES

- POLICY -

The Board of Education urges and expects principals to foster and encourage parent advisory committees in schools.

The Board recognizes the worth of many forms of parental participation in school life, such as informational meetings and auxiliary support. Additionally, the Board believes that consultation with parents is a desirable and necessary part of a complete school program.